OUR INGREDIENTS

The Dough

This is the foundation of our famous pizza. It's made from scratch every day at each of our locations using same dough-making process used by Joe Sr. when he opened his first pizzeria. The consistency makes for a perfect blend of crispiness and depth. Our pan pizza dough is a bit lighter which creates the soft texture that Southside pan pizza is known for.

The Sauce

You can almost hear our Sicilian Great-Grandma's when you taste her sauce: "Never over-spice ... you need to taste the tomatoes." And, of course, it's all natural.

The Cheese

If it's not our cheese, it's not Southside pizza. We're the last standing pizzeria that uses this old-school cheese – robust, high-melting-point for the perfect thin crust pizza. We save the more melty mozzarella for our pan pizza – which is also delicious.

The Meat

Chicago is the meat capital of the world, and, as far as we're concerned, the ONLY place for true pizza sausage. Ours is made to order only for us from a legendary Chicago butcher.
